Author's statement

The author

submits the article

for publication.

The author declares

1. that he/she holds the unrestricted copyright and associated exploitation rights to the submitted contribution,
2. that he/she holds the rights to any images used, has verified this and can provide proof thereof,
3. that he/she has read the 'Guidelines for Authors' (<https://leibnizsozietat.de/publikationen/hinweise-fur-autoren/>), accepts them, and has taken these guidelines into account to the best of his/her knowledge. This also applies to the correct attribution of all textual and visual quotations in the submitted article.

In the event of publication in the proceedings (Sitzungsberichte), the author transfers the exploitation rights arising from copyright exclusively to the Leibniz Society, without any temporal or geographical restrictions, though limited to uses carried out under the name of the Leibniz Society. The Leibniz Society is entitled to conclude publishing contracts in its own name and to sub-license the exploitation rights in this context. The transfer of rights does not give rise to any claims for remuneration by the author against the Leibniz Society or a publisher. One year after the publication of the article, the author is also permitted to exploit the work, whether for a fee or free of charge.

In the event of publication in Leibniz Online, the exploitation rights remain with the author without restriction. The author may publish their contribution elsewhere at any time; however, the Leibniz Society requests that the re-publication include a reference to the first publication and the corresponding location of that publication.

By signing this document, the author declares their agreement to the terms set out herein. We ask the author to print out this declaration, sign it and send it to the Leibniz Society's postal address (Leibniz Society of Sciences in Berlin e.V., Langenbeck-Virchow-Haus, Luisenstraße 58/59, 10117 Berlin).
